Product Description:

Used 2013 Graet Wall C30

2013 Great Wall C30, a classic and practical compact family car.

The exterior design is simple and elegant, with smooth and natural lines, neither ostentatious nor dignified. The front face is unique, highlighting the unique charm of the brand. The body proportions are coordinated, and the compact body size allows it to shuttle freely on urban roads and easily cope with various road conditions.

In terms of interior, practicality is the main focus. The layout is reasonable and the operation is convenient. The seats are comfortable and can provide good support for the driver and passengers. The interior space is spacious, whether in the front or back row, passengers can have a comfortable riding experience. The trunk volume is considerable, meeting the storage needs of daily travel and shopping.

In terms of power, the 2013 Great Wall C30 performs reliably. The engine power output is stable and the acceleration is smooth. The matching transmission system has smooth gear shifting, which brings you a comfortable driving experience. At the same time, it also has good fuel economy, reducing your car cost.

In terms of safety configuration, it is equipped with a number of safety systems to escort your travel. Whether it is active safety or passive safety, you can drive with peace of mind without any worries.

The 2013 Great Wall C30 is a compact car with a very high cost performance. With its reliable quality, practical configuration and comfortable driving experience, it has become an ideal choice for family travel.
